To everything there is a season, and a time for every activity under heaven:

*A time to be born and a time to die;
A time to plant and a time to uproot;
A time to weep and a time to laugh;
A time for mourning and a time for dancing;
A time to scatter stones and a time to gather them;
A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to seek . . .*

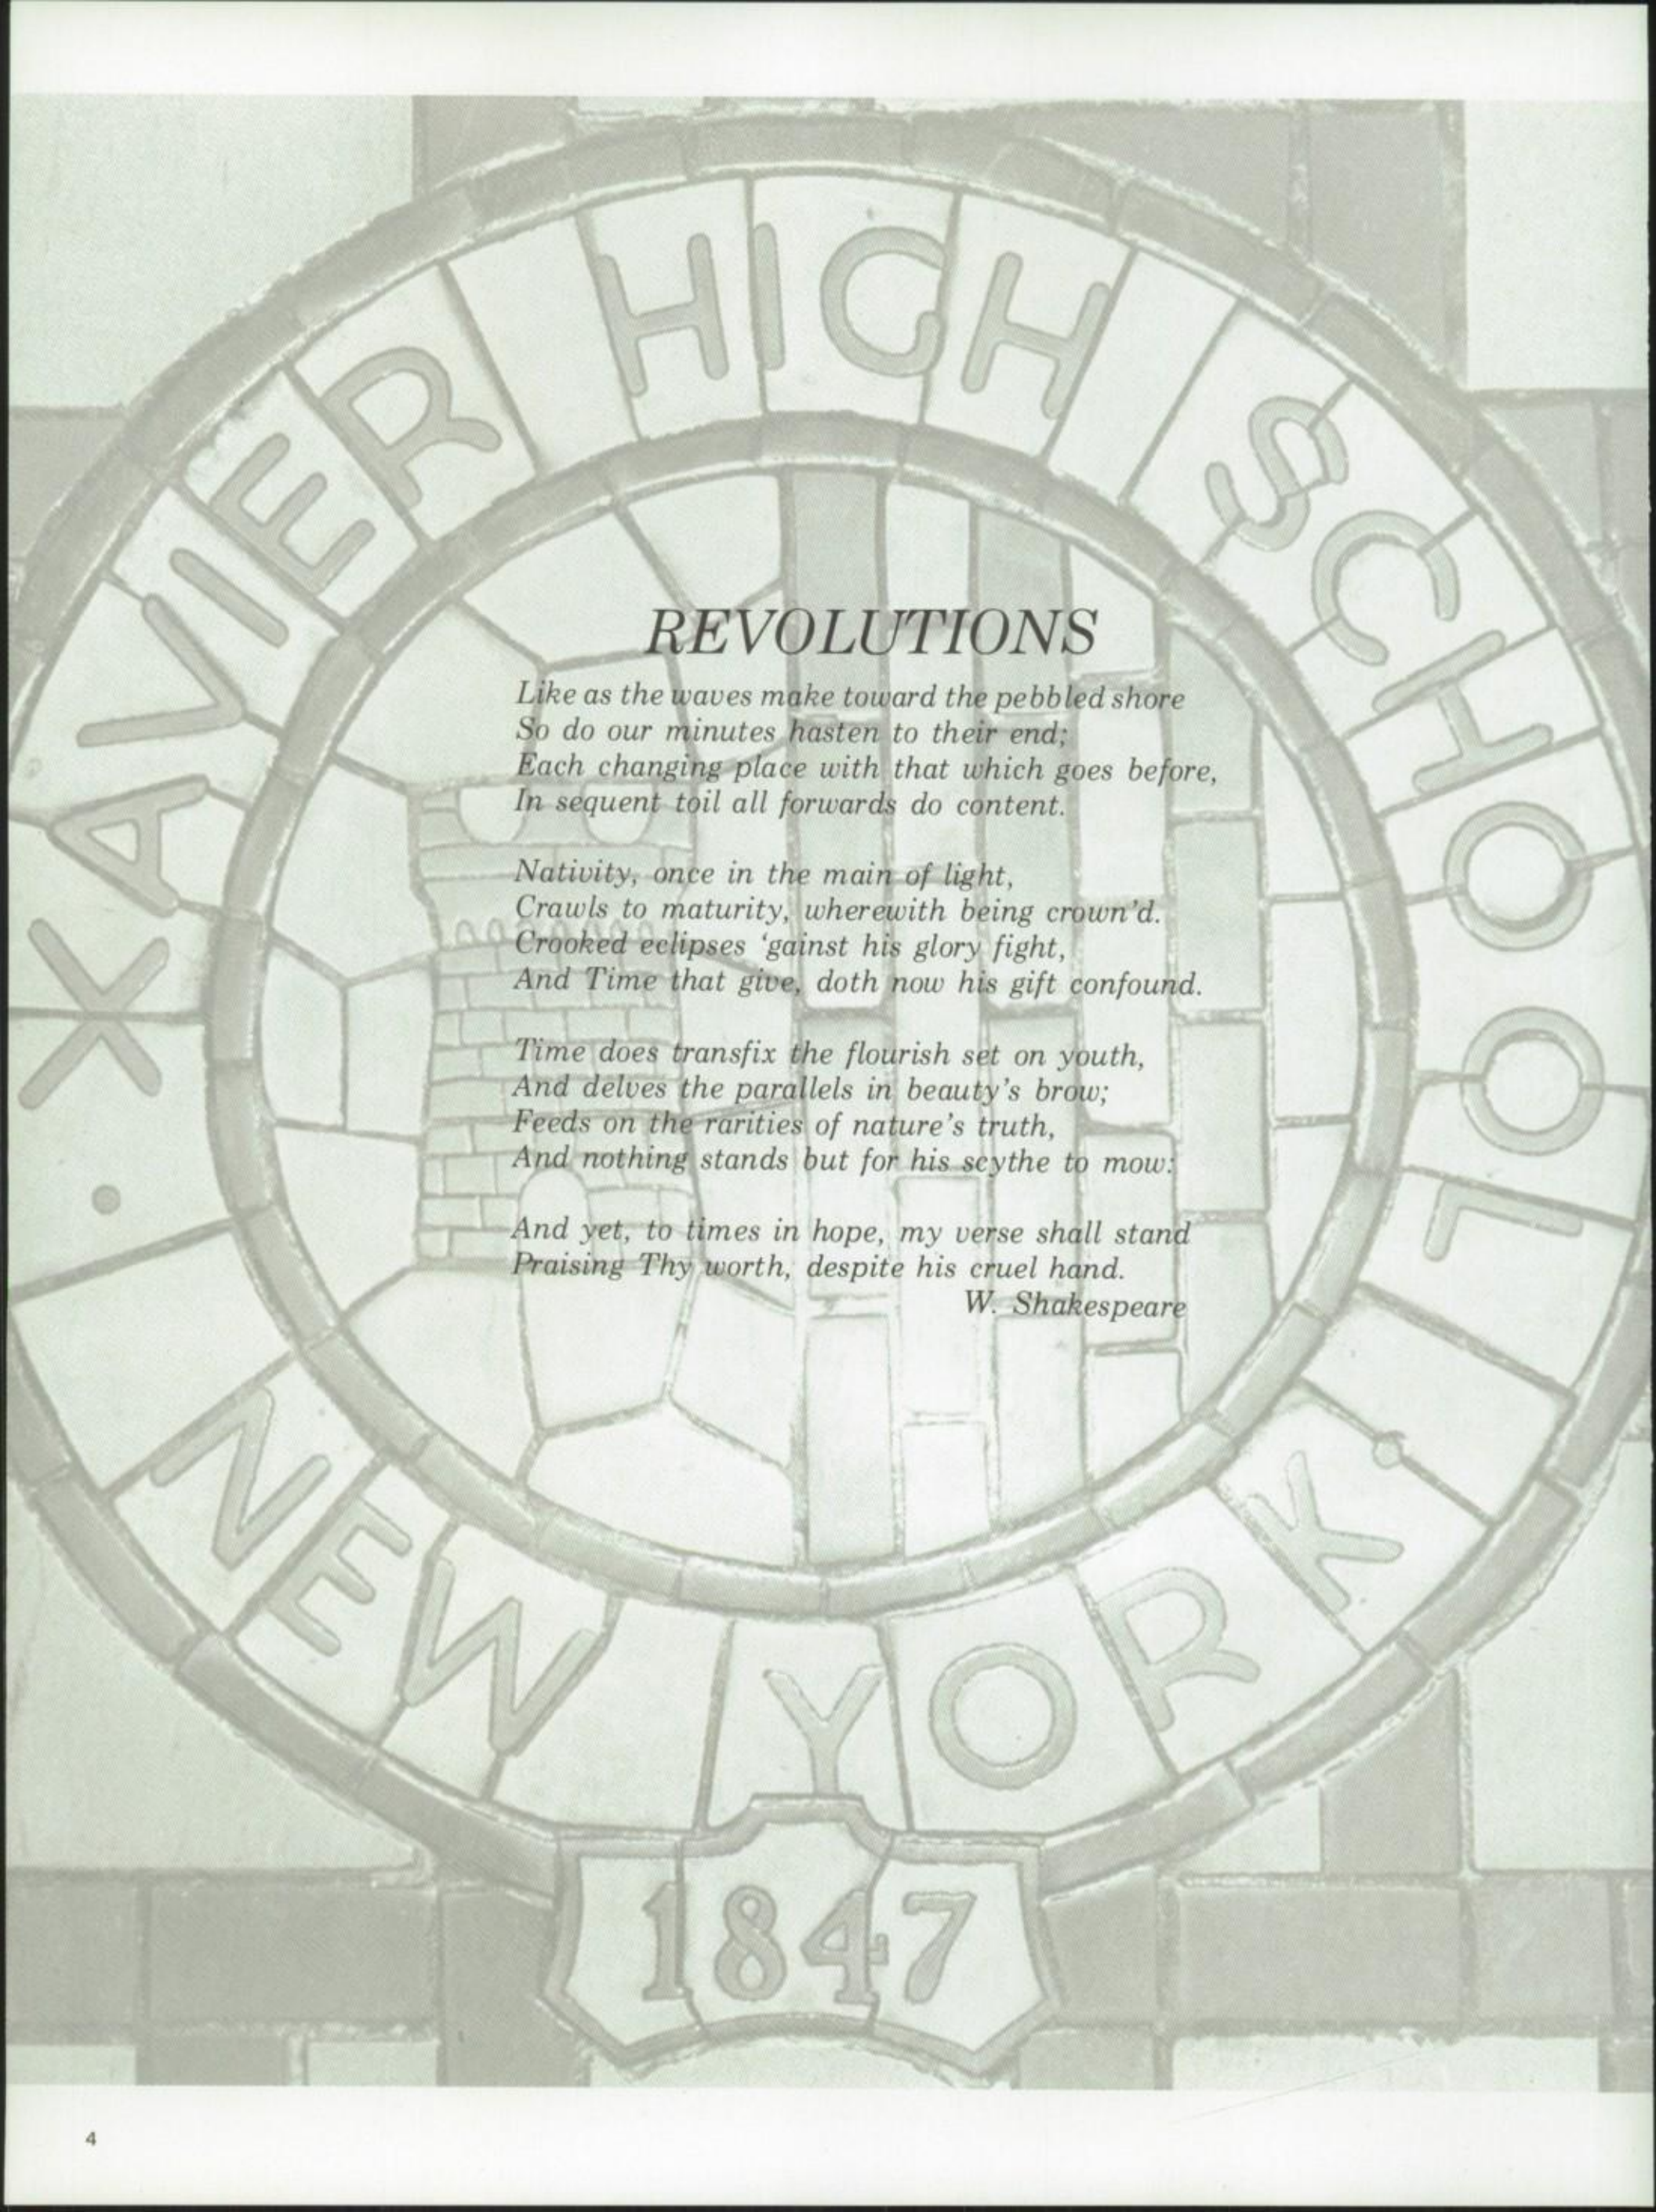

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2, 4-6

XAVIER 1979

REVOLUTIONS

*Like as the waves make toward the pebbled shore
So do our minutes hasten to their end;
Each changing place with that which goes before,
In sequent toil all forwards do content.*

*Nativity, once in the main of light,
Crawls to maturity, wherewith being crown'd.
Crooked eclipses 'gainst his glory fight,
And Time that give, doth now his gift confound.*

*Time does transfix the flourish set on youth,
And delves the parallels in beauty's brow;
Feeds on the rarities of nature's truth,
And nothing stands but for his scythe to mow:*

And yet, to times in hope, my verse shall stand Praising Thy worth, despite his cruel hand.

DEDICATION

Mr. James F. Scott

Mr. Joseph R. Caruso

For the last one hundred and thirty two years Xavier's motto, "Beyond Academic Excellence", has called all who have been part of the Xavier community to outstanding achievement in every aspect of living. For the last thirty years Xavier High School has had the privilege of having Joseph R. Caruso and James F. Scott as embodiments of the excellence that is Xavier. These two men have in fact given of their faith, talents and love of learning to the thousands of students, parents and teachers who have crossed their paths and have been touched by the quality of their lives.

The warmth of Joseph R. Caruso has grown warmer with the passing of years. His kindness and concern have been expressed in his role of teacher of the Social Sciences and Modern Language and through his sharing of how music and the well trained voice lighten men's hearts.

James F. Scott has touched many with the unique kindness and concern he has shown through his involvement as teacher of the Social Sciences and supremely professional work of coaching Xavier students in the rigors of Cross Country and Track. Through years of experience and patience has evolved a man who knows how to create the common identity and purpose of a team and urge the individual to take pride in his athletic expertise.

Both Joseph R. Caruso and James F. Scott are first and foremost Christian men who do not hesitate to do their part in spreading the Gospel by making it part of their lives as men for others. They are men who draw strength from and also strengthen loving wives, sons and daughters. We are proud that Joseph R. Caruso and James F. Scott are part of the Xavier family and pray that the Lord they serve so well will bestow upon them every grace and blessing.

OUR GOLDEN JUBILARIAN
FIFTY YEARS A JESUIT

Entered the Society of Jesus—September 7, 1928

Dear Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
To give, and not to count the cost,
To fight, and not to heed the wounds,
To toil, and not to seek for rest,
To labor, and not to ask for reward,
Save that of knowing that I do your will.
St. Ignatius of Loyola

CLASS OF 1979

Our noisy years seem moments in the being
Of the eternal Silence: truths that wake,
To perish never:
Which neither listless, nor mad endeavor,
Nor Man nor boy
Nor all that is at enmity with joy,
Can utterly abolish or destroy!

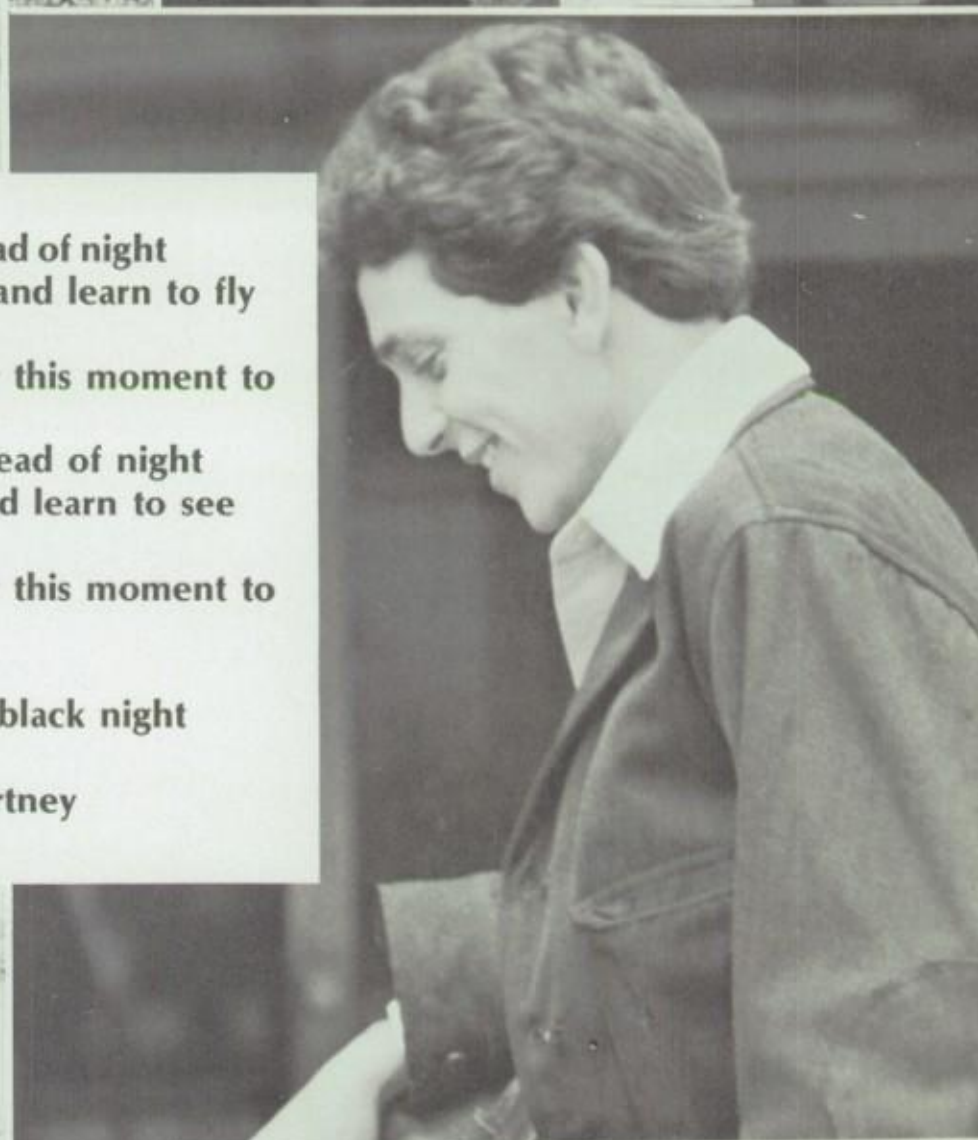

Hence in a season of calm weather
Though inland far we be,
Our souls have sight of that immortal sea
Which brought us hither
Can in a moment travel thither,
And see the children sport upon the shore,
And hear the mighty waters rolling evermore.

William Wordsworth

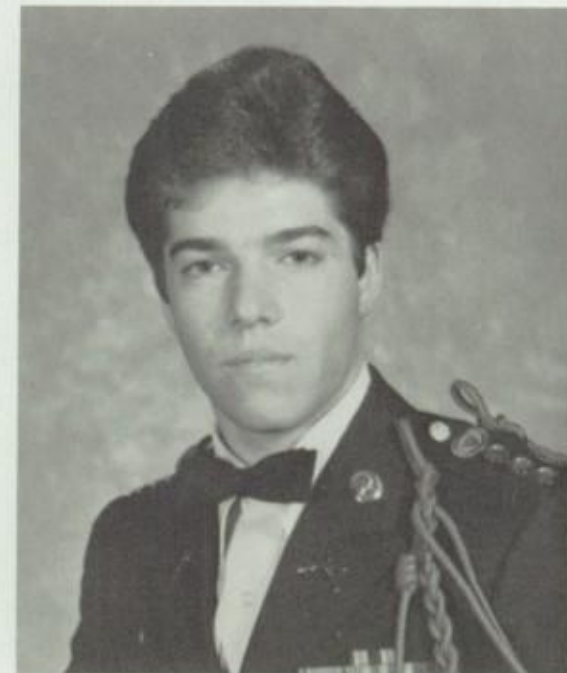

Blackbird singing in the dead of night
 Take these broken wings and learn to fly
 All your life
 You were only waiting for this moment to arise.
 Blackbird singing in the dead of night
 Take your sunken eyes and learn to see
 All your life
 You were only waiting for this moment to be free
 Blackbird fly Blackbird fly
 Into the light of the dark black night

If I leave here tomorrow,
Would you still remember me?
For I must be traveling on now,
Because there's too many places I've got to see . . .
'Cause I'm as free as a bird now,
And this bird will never change.

We light our lamps for atmosphere,

VIENNA

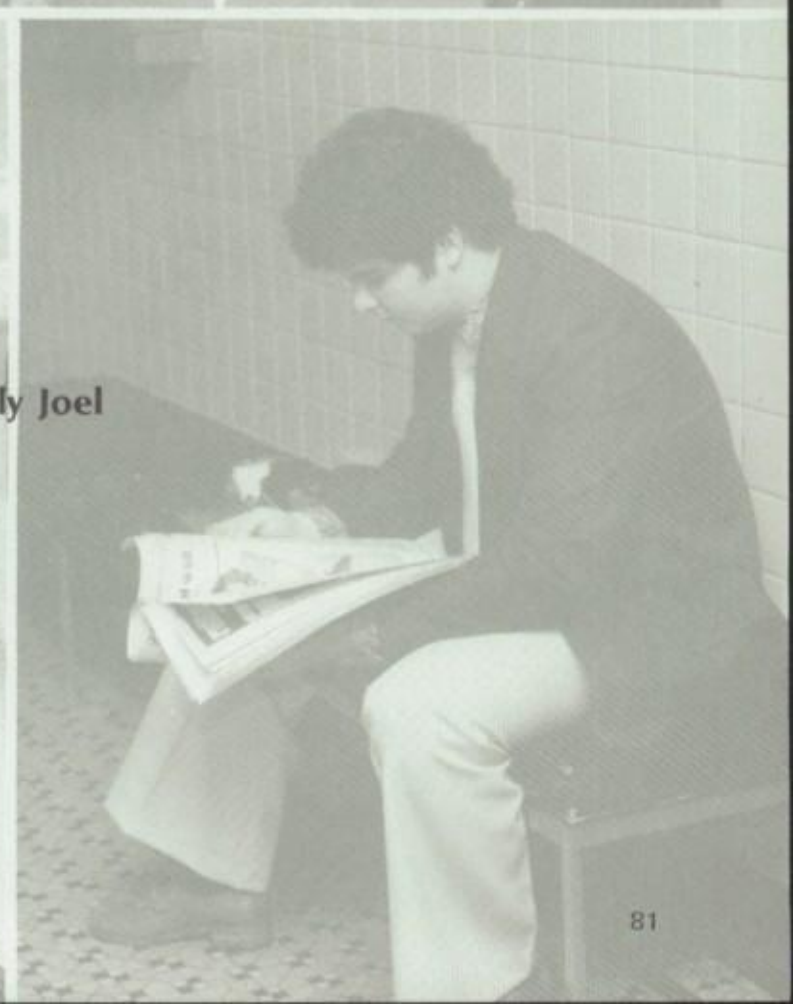

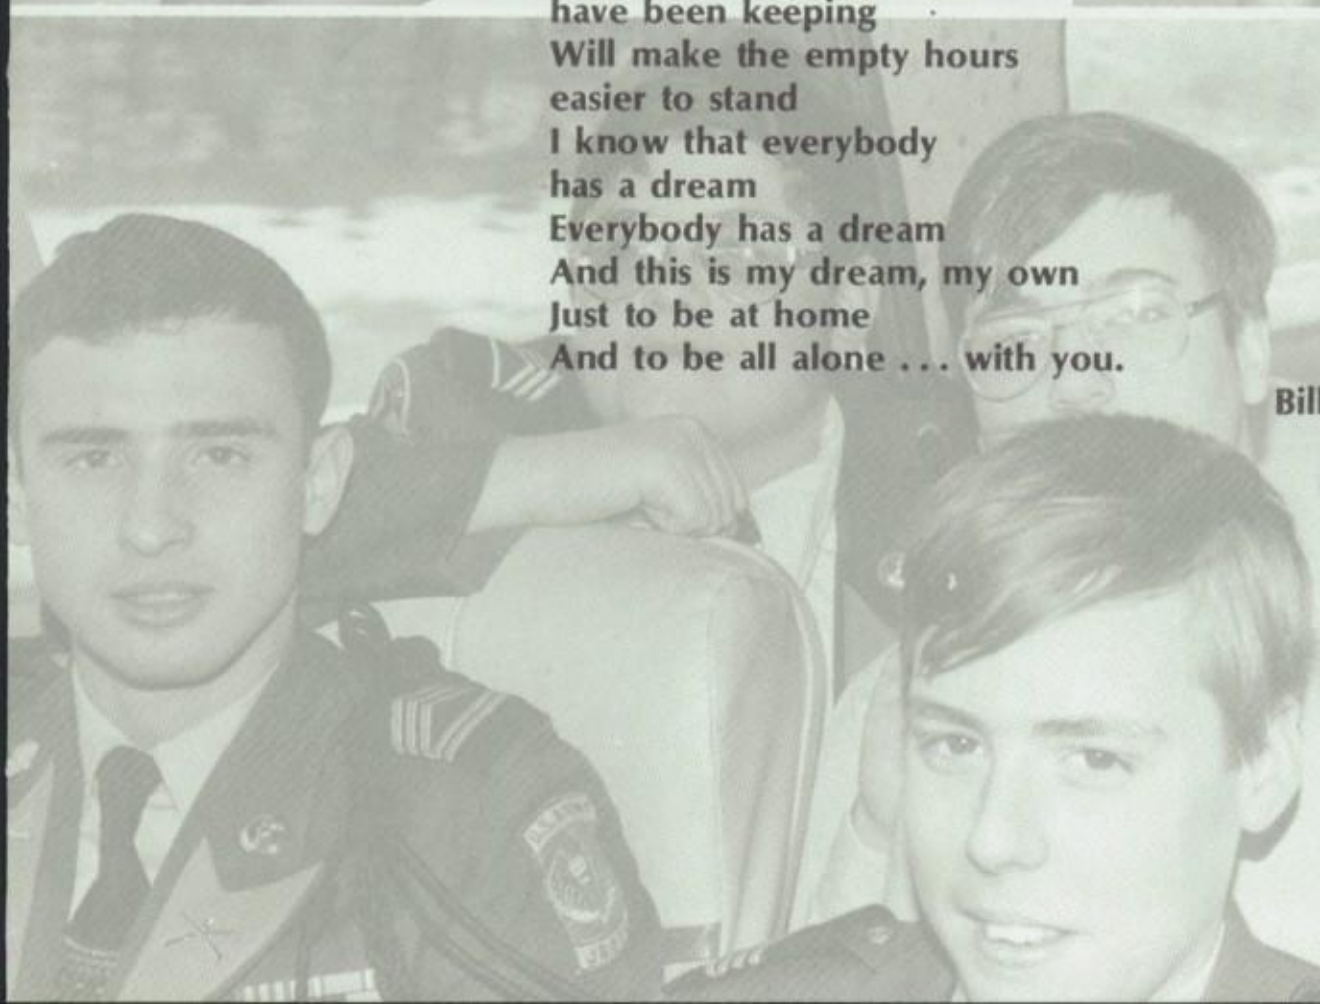

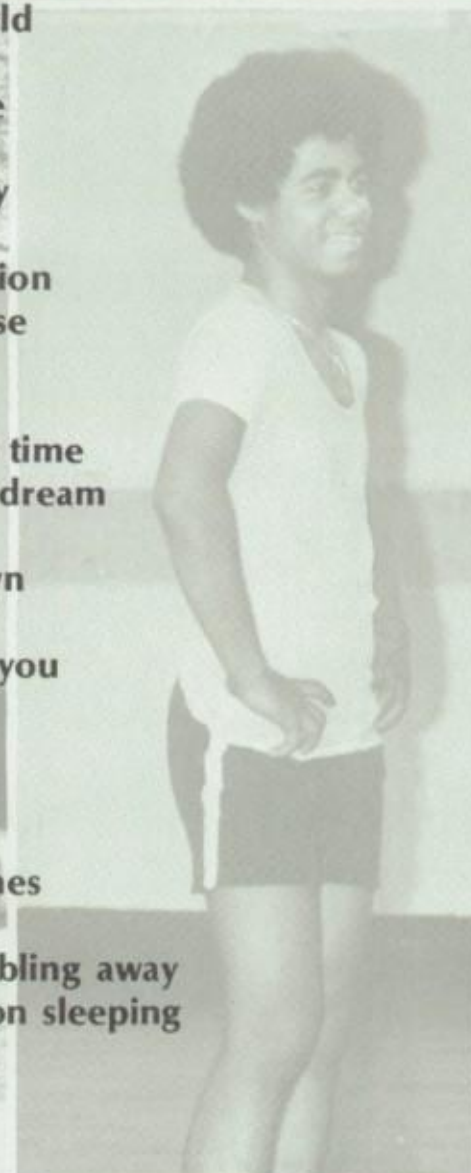

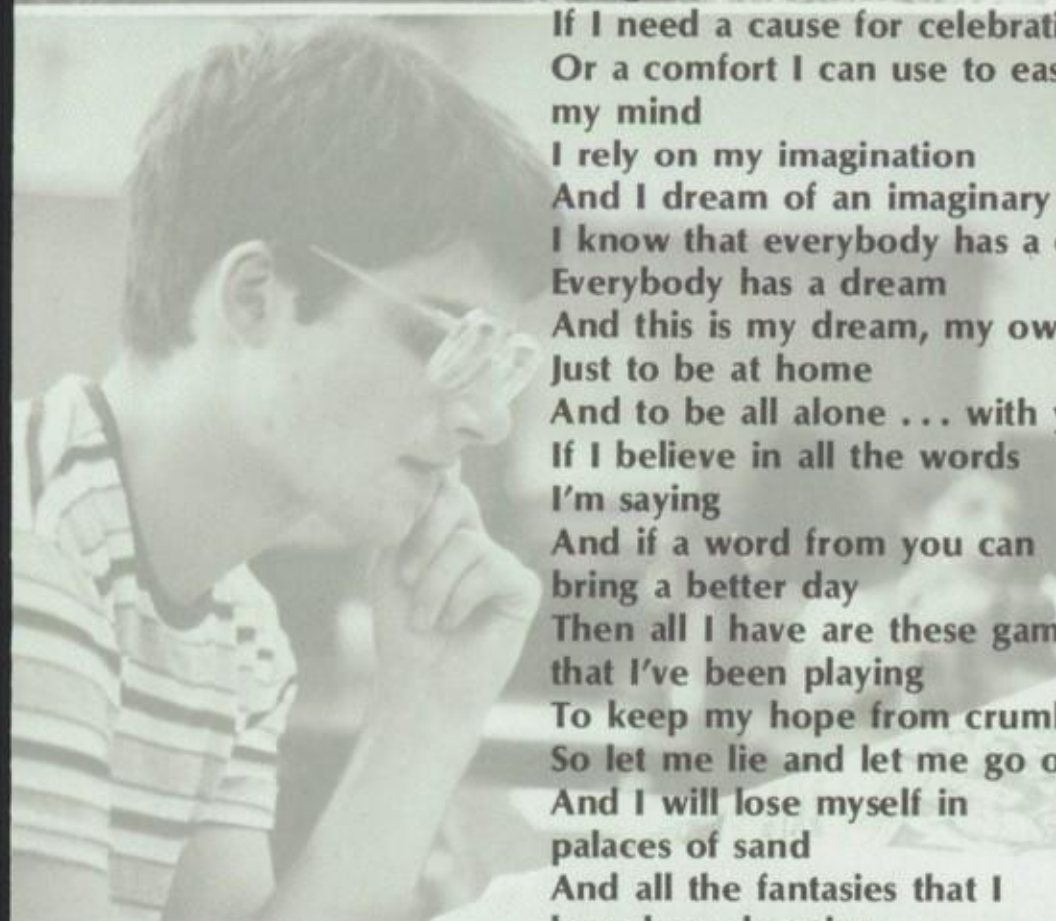

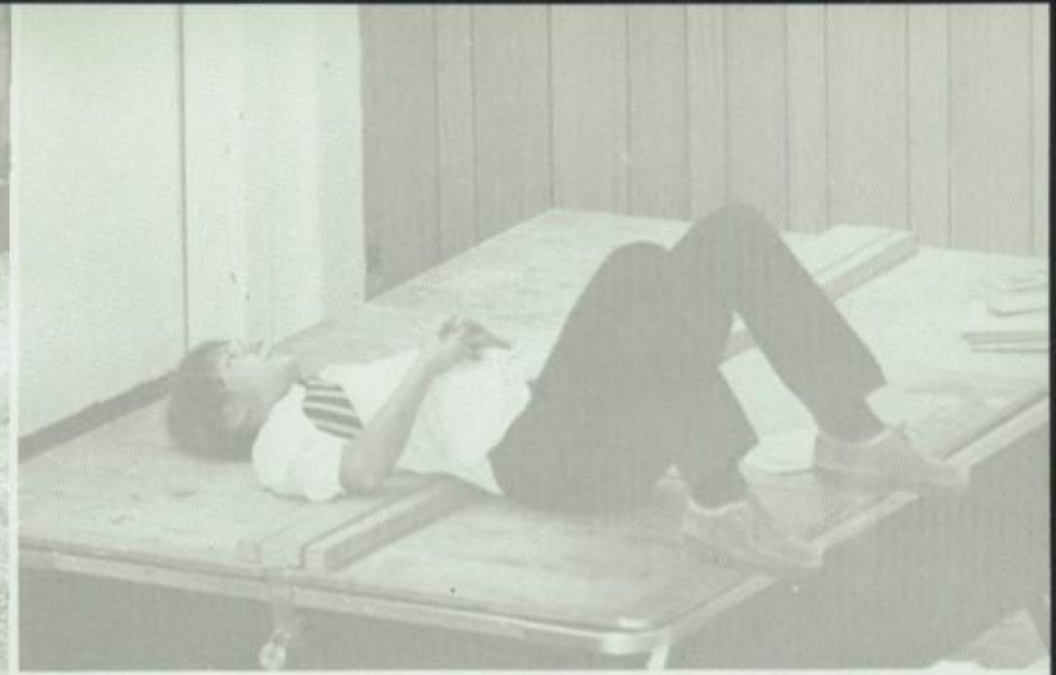

Slow down you crazy child
You're so ambitious for a juvenile
But then if you're so smart tell me why you are still so afraid?
Where's the fire, what's the hurry about?
You better cool it off before you burn it out
You got so much to do and only
So many hours in a day
But you know that when the truth is told
That you can get what you want
Or you can just get old
You're gonna kick off before you even get halfway through
When will you realize . . . Vienna waits for you
Slow down you're doing fine
You can't be everything you want to be
Before your time
Although it's so romantic on the borderline tonight
Too bad but it's the life you lead
You're so ahead of yourself
That you forfeit what you need
Though you can see when you're wrong
You know you can't always see when you're right
You got your passion you got your pride
But don't you know only fools are satisfied?
Dream on but don't imagine they'll all come true
When will you realize . . . Vienna waits for you
Slow down you crazy child
Take the phone off the hook and disappear for a while It's alright you can afford to lose a day or two
When will you realize . . . Vienna waits for you.

Billy Joel

Everybody Has a Dream

While in these days of quiet desperation
As I wander through the world in which I live
I search everywhere for some new inspiration
But it's more than cold reality can give
If I need a cause for celebration
Or a comfort I can use to ease
my mind
I rely on my imagination
And I dream of an imaginary time
I know that everybody has a dream
Everybody has a dream
And this is my dream, my own
Just to be at home
And to be all alone . . . with you
If I believe in all the words
I'm saying
And if a word from you can bring a better day
Then all I have are these games that I've been playing
To keep my hope from crumbling away
So let me lie and let me go on sleeping
And I will lose myself in palaces of sand
And all the fantasies that I have been keeping
Will make the empty hours
easier to stand
I know that everybody
has a dream
Everybody has a dream
And this is my dream, my own
Just to be at home
And to be all alone . . . with you.

The world is but a projection of ourselves

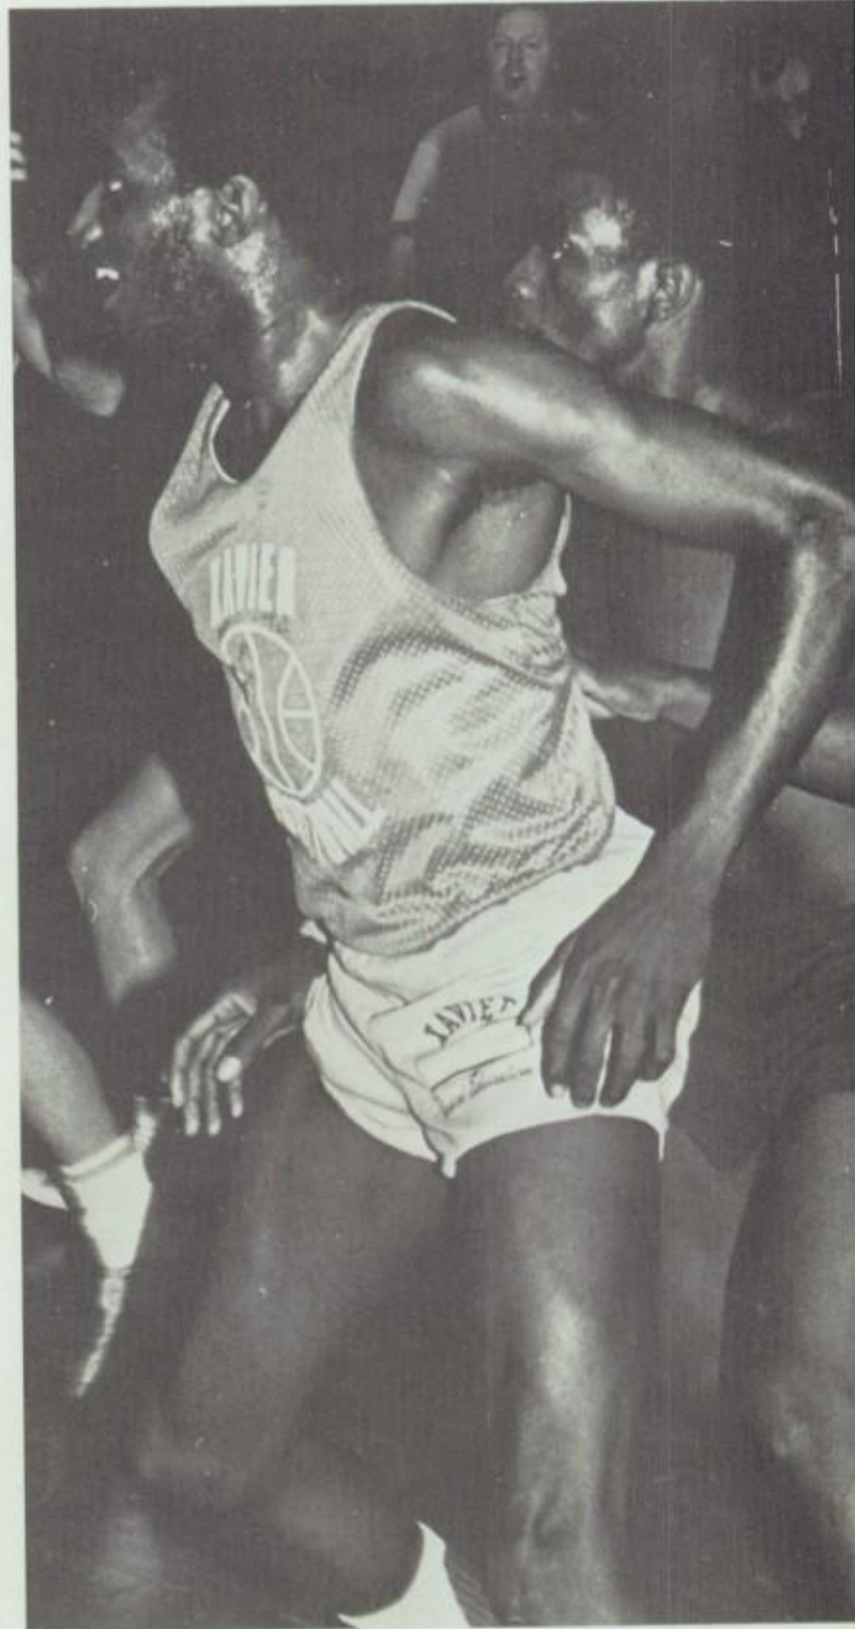

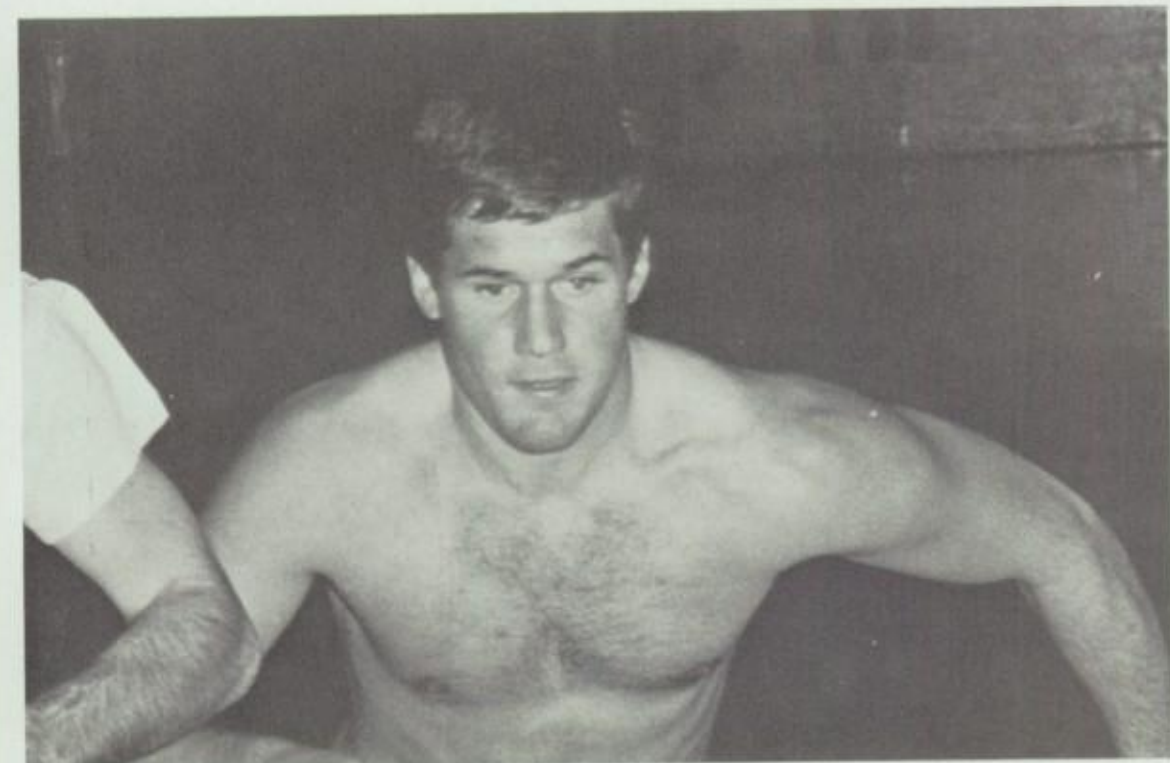

It is good or bad as we make it to be.

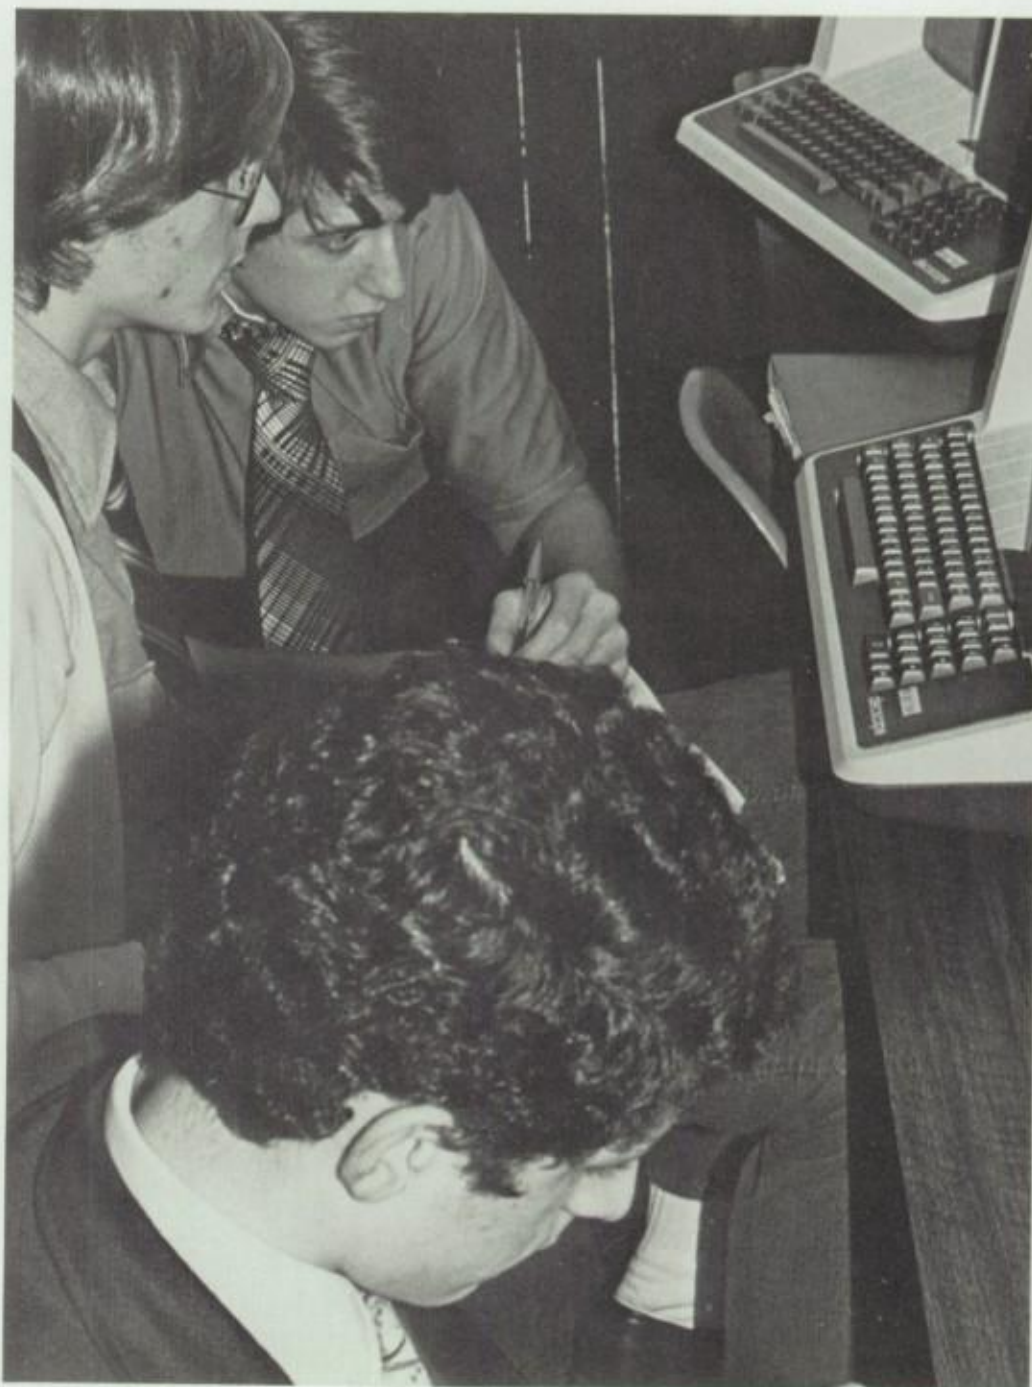

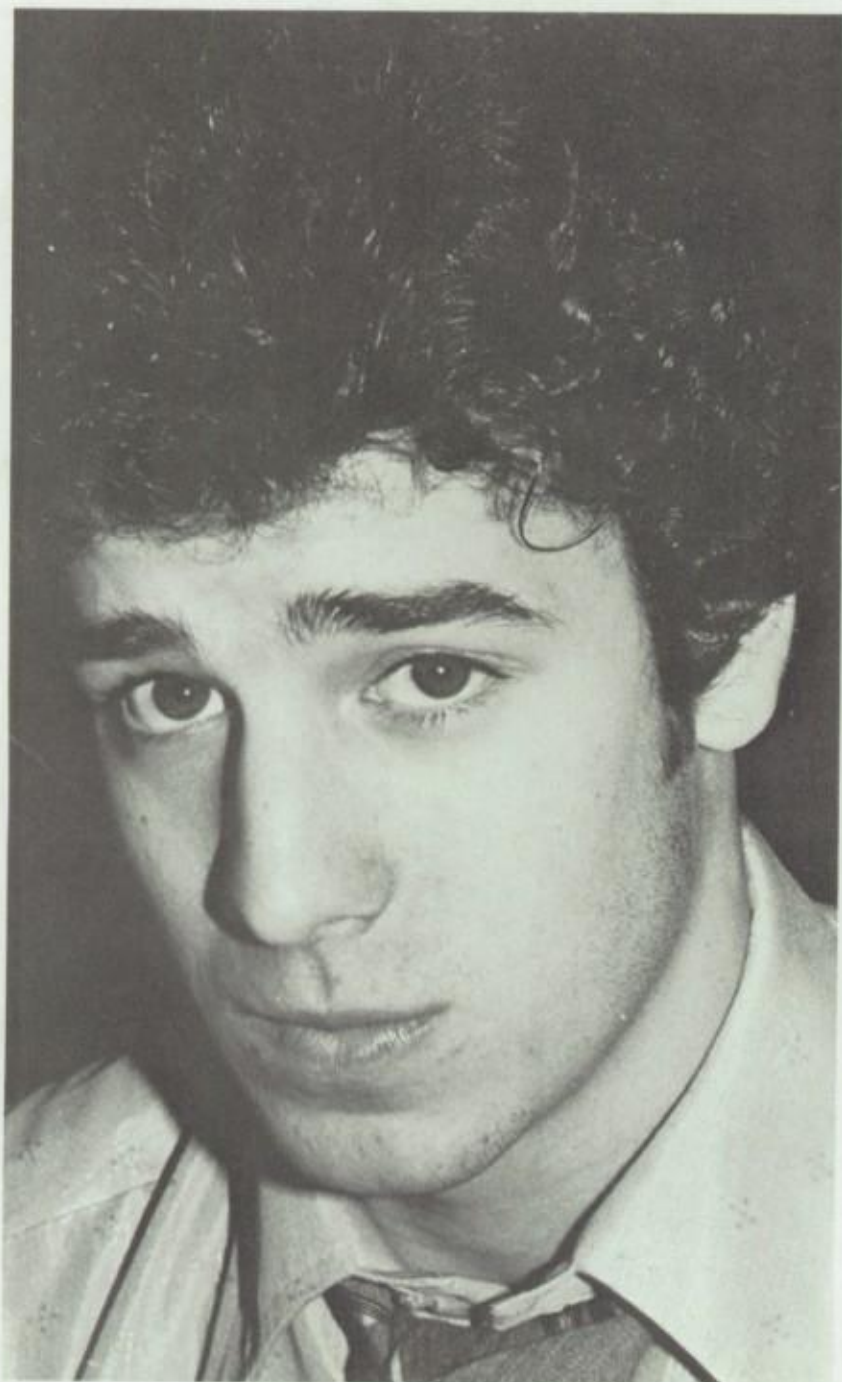

The world is a myriad of emotions

We must struggle to see it in a joyous way.

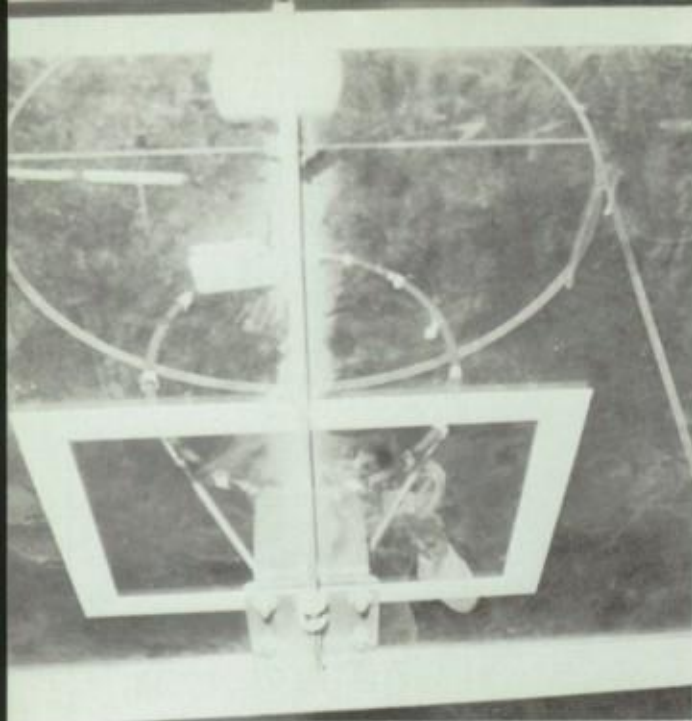

We are faced with anxiety and confusion

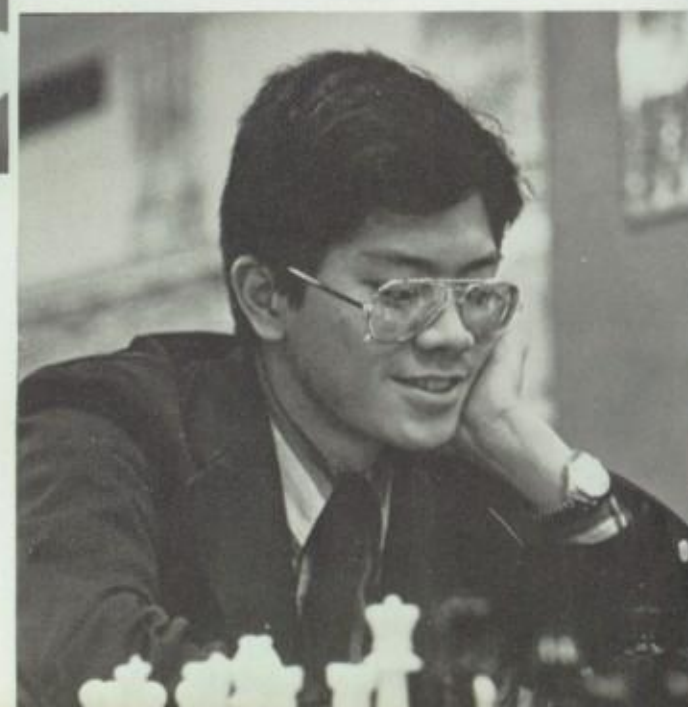

But the decision to be joyous is ours to make.

CHESS CLUB

The chess team participates in competition against various other schools. The six man team has proved itself most worthy in several matches and as the season comes to an end they have high hopes of being one of the three teams to make the league playoffs. After last year's second place finish and the addition of two strong new players (Ken Cusick and Larry Davis) they expected to coast to a first place finish this year. However, the team got off to an unexpectedly rocky start and has had to struggle to reach a position where it seems likely that they will make the playoffs.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year, the Xavier Community Council found no major issues to be among the needs of its students.

Therefore in order to remain a viable part of the Xavier Community, the Council allowed non-elected students to chair committees; such as the Publicity & Spirit Committee and the Commons Committee. The senior prom was organized by non-elected students who worked closely as a part of the Council.

In spite of the lack of major topics to deal with, the Community Council did succeed in most of its undertakings; the Christmas Fund-Raising Drive for the poor a prime example.

Next year, the Council will hopefully be able to continue on sound basis and maintain close ties with the students and administration of Xavier.

HIGHER ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM

The JESUIT HIGHER ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM, run by Fr. D. Michael Flynn offers a chance to gifted young men to show their abilities in academic work. Part of H.A.P. is the 8th graders striving to do well on the high-school entrance exam so that their potential blossoms to the fullest. Of course, they couldn't do it on their own; thus the other part: Xavier students who serve as tutors and give abundant help. The XAVIER students learn about giving up time to help others and they show what XAVIER is like. From the fun injected by Brian Crawford, the remarks of Kevin Charles or Edgar LaLuz, the quiet friendship of Artie Blaire or Marty Foley, the leadership of Darryl Washington and Joe Nardiello, the service of Joe Diaz and Guillermo Lozada, HAP students pick up examples of what the High School years have in store. In HAP things work out for the benefit of both tutor and students.

NEWSPAPER

The 1978-79 REVIEW got off to a slow start; initially under the direction of Fr. Thomas Tighe S.J., and later under Fr. John McSherry S.J. A number of new concepts in newspaper editing and layout were introduced. Among them were more militant editorials advocating student views, the acceptance of paid advertisements, and the expansion from four pages to eight. Although sometimes controversial, these changes were generally greeted favorably by the student body.

YEARBOOK

Any high school yearbook is a record in word and picture of what the essence of a school's life has been over the course of a year. For the members of a yearbook staff the book is much more. It is in fact a part of themselves. From the moment when senior portraits are taken, to the day when the acknowledgements page is submitted to the printer, the dedicated few who are the 1979 yearbook staff have worked through the best and worst of times; the best when everything went smoothly, the worst when human error and fate seemed to say that the yearbook is too enormous an enterprise to be completed. Hard work and imagination have come together to create the 1979 Xavier Yearbook which we hope will always remind you of the best of Xavier.

X-SQUAD

The X-Squad consists of the best that the school has to offer militarily. Its constant spirit of excellence has set the example for the Xavier Regiment. The 1978-79 team has met the great tradition of successes that has been part of the X-Squad in previous years. They did this by winning many first place awards in competition against both high schools and colleges across the country. The pressure is intense and the demands are high, but the experience of working together as a team is its own reward.

This year the X-Squad is commanded by Cadet Major Eugene Olsen, who introduced some new sequences into the drill routine. This year the squad has acquired a new moderator, SFC Thomas Benford, who with his help, guidance and personal sacrifices has been an integral and valuable part of the team's success.

COMMUNITY DAY

Certainly one of the most symbolic and time honored traditions of Xavier is Community Day; which is held annually, shortly after the academic year begins. Community Day is the day on which the colonel of the regiment and the president of the student council, this year Kevin Milne and Louis Egnasko respectively, receive their commissions of office. A sword is presented to the Colonel and a gavel to the Council President. These are symbols of the offices they will hold in the coming year.

Community Day originates from the vigil that St. Ignatius Loyola made on the night of March 24, 1522, at Monserrat, when he chose to become a Knight of Christ. His sword and other weapons were hung on the altar rail as a votive offering. We at Xavier feel that Community Day also symbolizes our urge to be of service to others and to do so unselfishly as Christ would do. For it is by serving our fellow man that we discover who we truly are.

BASKETBALL

The 78-79 Warriors were not as successful statistically as they were in recent years. The team managed to gain the respect of many coaches in the league and were known for their hard play and determination. They established themselves as a future contender for the CHSAA Division 1 crown.

This year's team graduates eight seniors led by their captain Charles Lachner. Michael Davis, Sean Dillon, Robert Ehler and Patrick Mangan completed the starting team. James Clausing, Joseph Mills and Steven Staranka were great contributors with their consistent play.

The team returns four juniors, Keven Deegan, Steven George, John Foppiani and Thomas Maher. The places of the graduating seniors will be taken by the Junior Varsity who played well all year.

Xavier's basketball program is coordinated by Mr. Thomas Carpenter, the head coach, Mr. Franklin Caesar the Junior Varsity coach and Mr. Joseph Nesci the Freshman coach.

Special mention should be given to Fr. Charles Burns and Fr. Michael Fanizzi for their constant encouragement and for their continuous support throughout the season.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Although the 1978 Xavier Bruins' season was not as successful as others in years past, the team's record does not tell of the long hours and hard work put in by the players and coaching staff. It should be noted that a number of the Bruins were honored for their outstanding efforts on the field. Seniors Frank Marsicano, Bruce Goldner, and Ed Hiler were voted All-League by the coaches of the league. Senior Charles Mascia and Junior George Connelly received honorable mentions.

This past season underclassmen had the opportunity to gain the much needed experience in the tough C.H.S.F.L. These players have already begun their strenuous weightlifting and conditioning program. The Bruins have a long and difficult road ahead of them, but both the players and coaching staff are determined to bring Xavier Football to what it once was.

The Indoor Track season of '78-'79 was Xavier's best ever. The team broke a total of eight school records and received an amazing total of 215 medals.

The mile relay team of Phil Kolb, Charles Caruth, Cliff Lubin, and Fritz Gaspard broke the school record which had stood for thirty years.

In climaxing a brilliant indoor season, which included a first place finish in the C.H.S.A.A. Sectional Champs 440 yard run and a recording setting second place finish in the C.H.S.A.A. City Champs, Doug Powell placed 9th in the Eastern States Championships 300 yard dash. This ranked him 3rd in the state of New York and first in N.Y.C. high school competition.

The weight team headed by W. Yee, K. McCartney, E. Vargas, J. McGuire and company captured its 6th out of 7 Sect.-Jr.-Mid.-Championship. The freshman two mile distance medley relays headed by J. Vullo, J. O'Hara, P. Lucas, and company always placed high in the standings against some of the best competition in the city.

J. Profaci, although out most of the season due to an injury, ran the last two meets of the season and had impressive outings.

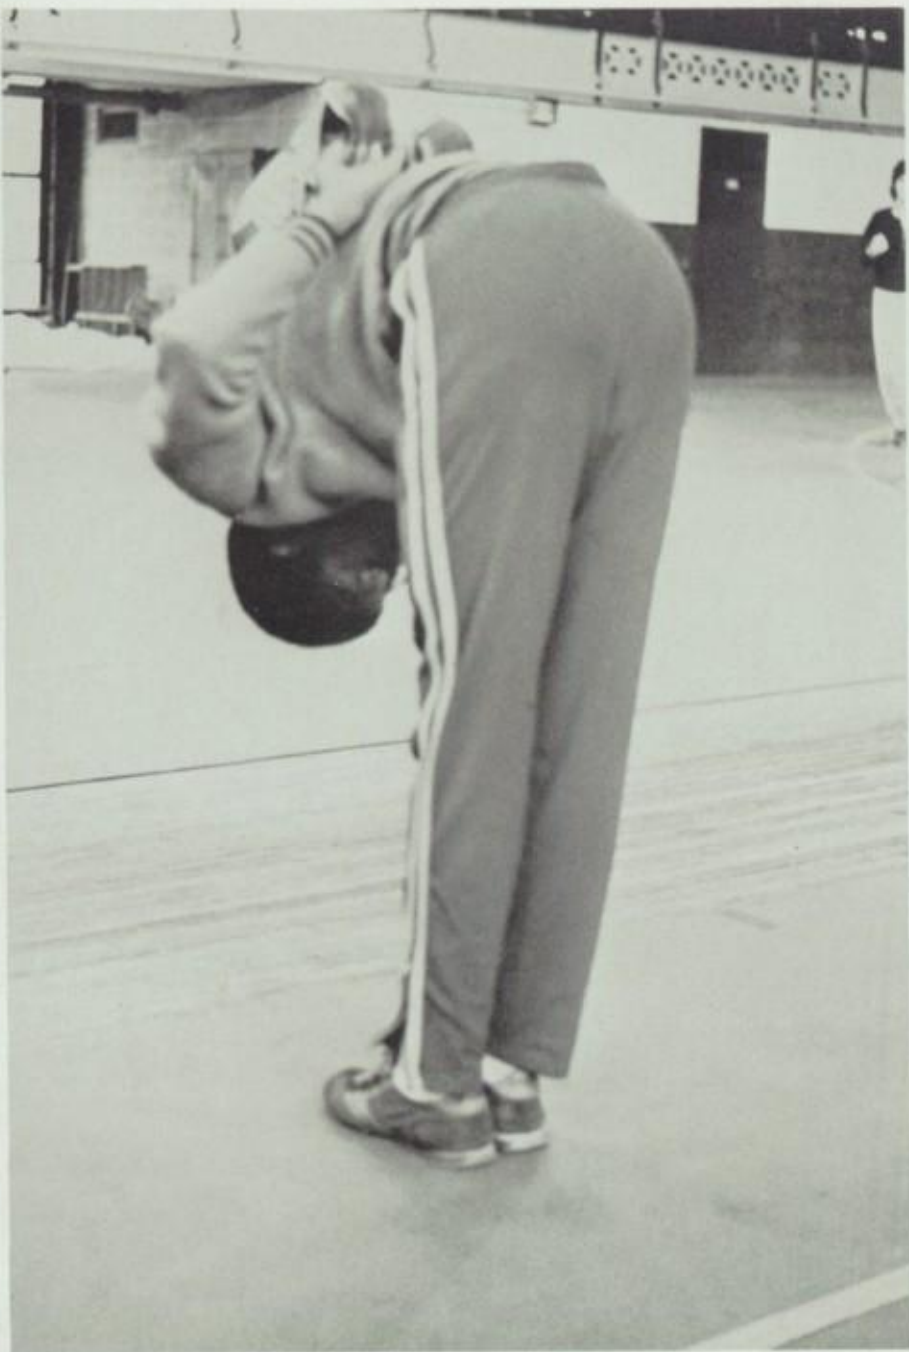

Congratulations to team Co-Captains Syd Jones, Phil Kolb, D. Powell, and J. Scott for inspiring the team and much thanks to coaches Jim Scott and Joe Fox.

RIFLE TEAM

The Xavier rifle team has been doing very well so far this year. Under the able leadership of captain Bill Cro with strong backing from fellow seniors Kenneth Ling and Robert Cocace and with fine performances by juniors Ed McGarr, Alex Kwok, and Dan Wisotsky the team has defeated such strong opponents as New York Military Academy and Seton Hall. They have just finished firing in the First Army R.O.T.C. Regional Match and are confident of placing high in the standings.

The rifle team has recently suffered a major setback in the loss of its coach Sgt. Luke Fluker who, as many of you know, is no longer at Xavier. Sgt. Fluker has coached the team for the last six years and was very dedicated to his job. The entire rifle team and, I am certain, everyone at Xavier misses him very much.

In the interim between Sgt. Fluker's leaving and the appointment of a new coach many of his duties have fallen on the team's moderator Fr. O'Leary and the team captain Bill Cro.

The Sons of Xavier Trophy, which is given to that member of the rifle team, who in the eyes of his teammates has distinguished himself above all others in both extracurricular and academic areas was awarded this year to captain Bill Cro.

SOCCER

The soccer team was a dream of several students three years ago, but they needed a moderator. Last year, with the help of Br. Butler, the soccer team got started. It played two games that year. This year, with increased interest, the soccer team became a permanent part of Xavier. It played six games in the fall and four in the spring. Next year it will join the C.H.S. League and play twenty games in the fall. Due to the great amount of interest a J.V. team was formed. From a dream to reality. The soccer team needs your support. So come see your fellow students play a fascinating game, or better yet join the squad!

KARATE

The 1978-1979 year was marked by both progress and success for the Karate Club. Jim Cahill, a Xavier graduate who started practicing at Xavier three years ago, received his black belt in October. Dan Holohan, a sophomore, achieved the rank of brown belt joining three juniors at this level, Pat Antaki, Steve Melnychuk and Michael Ryan. Senior Stephen Manogue won trophies for the straight year at the annual World Tae Kwon Do championships held at Madison Square Garden. Nine members of the Xavier club won a total of nine trophies at this event. Next year should prove to be even more exciting as the new members advance up the ranks and four upperclassmen try to attain 1st degree black belts.

30 YEARS OF DEDICATION

HARRY P. RICONDA

1949-1979

STUDENT—TEACHER— REGISTRAR—ADVISOR

The study of the humanities enables the individual to explore the ways of becoming more fully human and what the possibilities for man's achievement are. In his thirty years as a member of the Xavier Faculty and Administration Mr. Harry P. Riconda has tried to communicate a quality of excellence in his teaching of the Social Studies, English and the Classics.

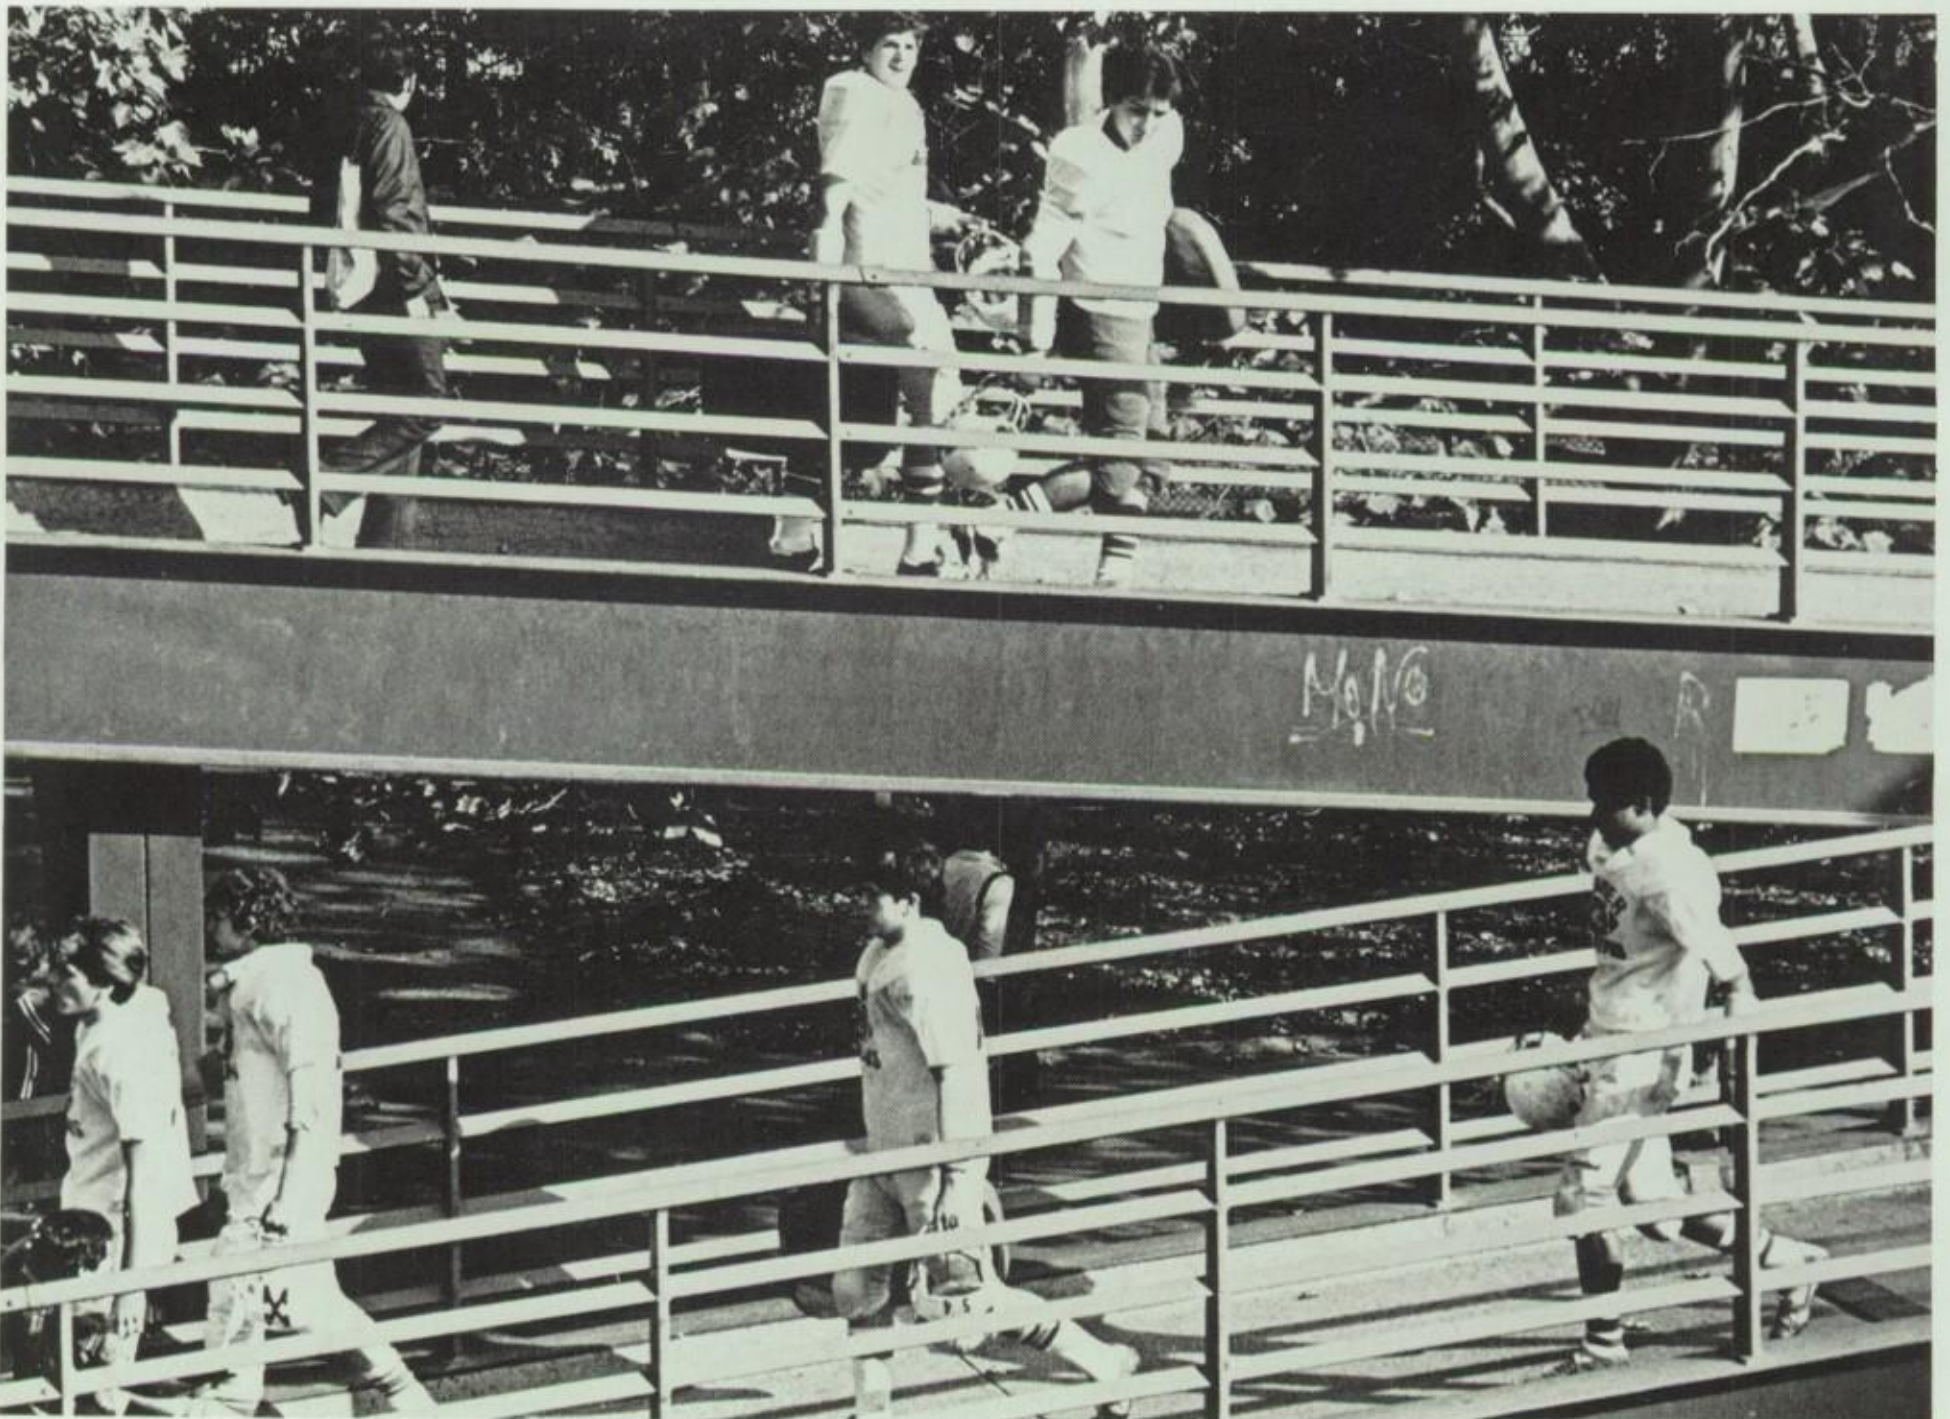

We congratulate Mr. Riconda in his Anniversary year, and thank him for giving so many years of his life for the building up of the Xavier Community in the past, present and the future.

Now I re-examine philosophies and religions.

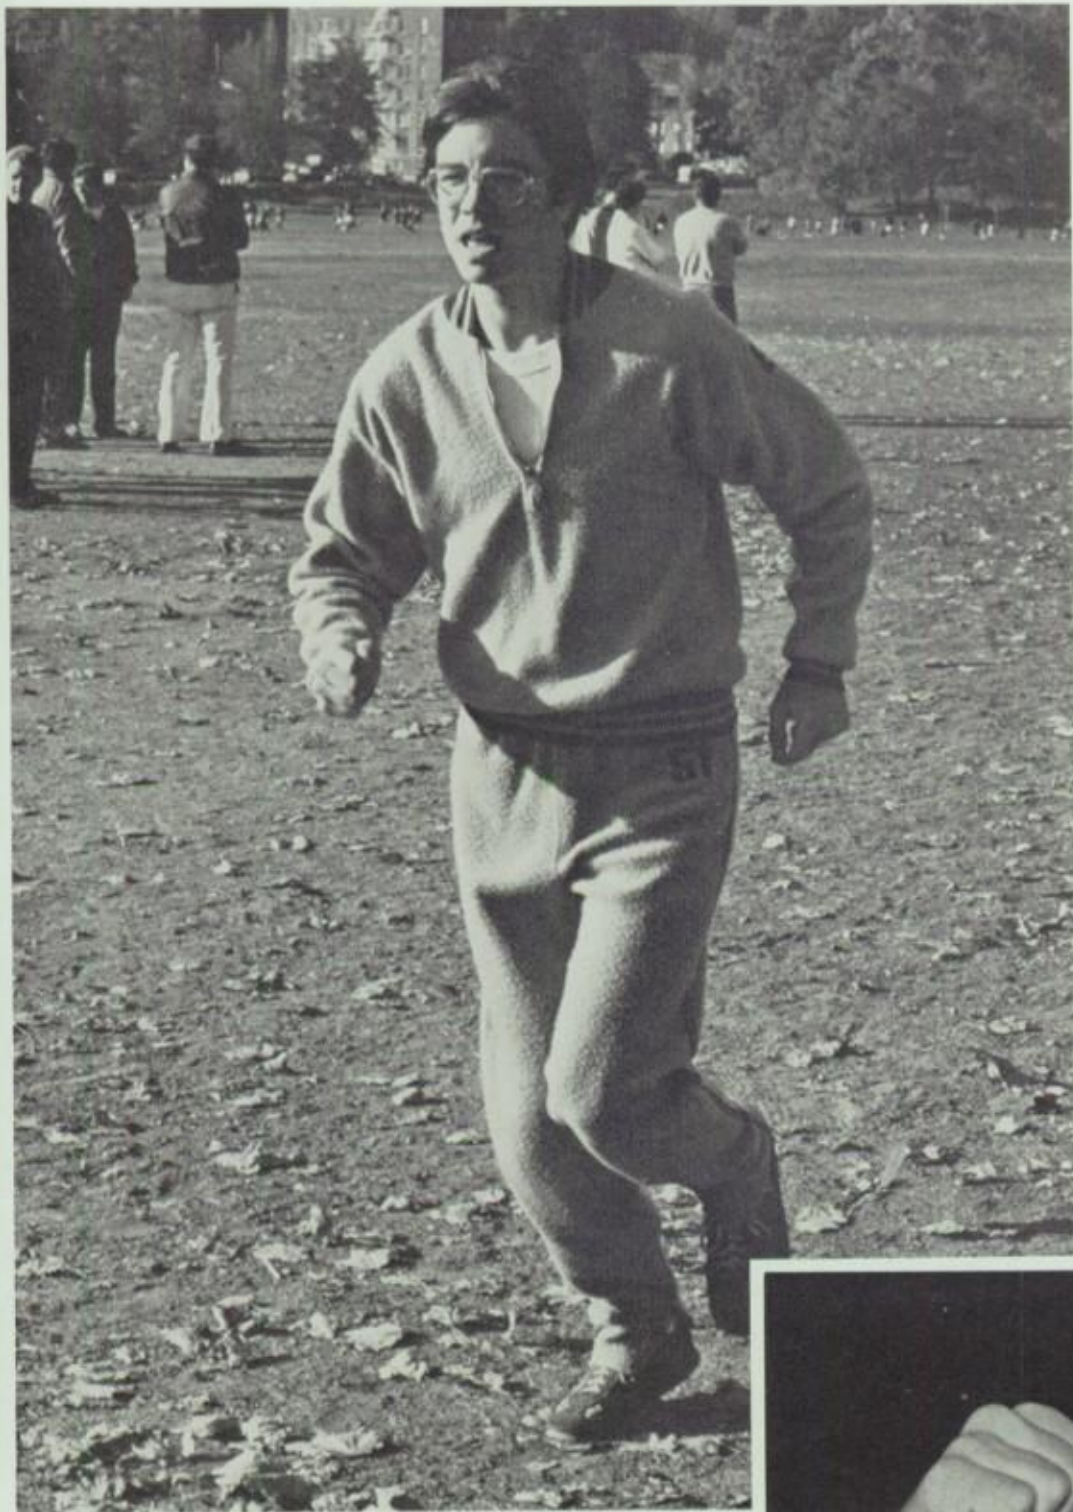

They may prove well in lecture rooms,

yet not prove at all under the spacious clouds,
and along the landscape and flowing currents.

You say you are leaving.

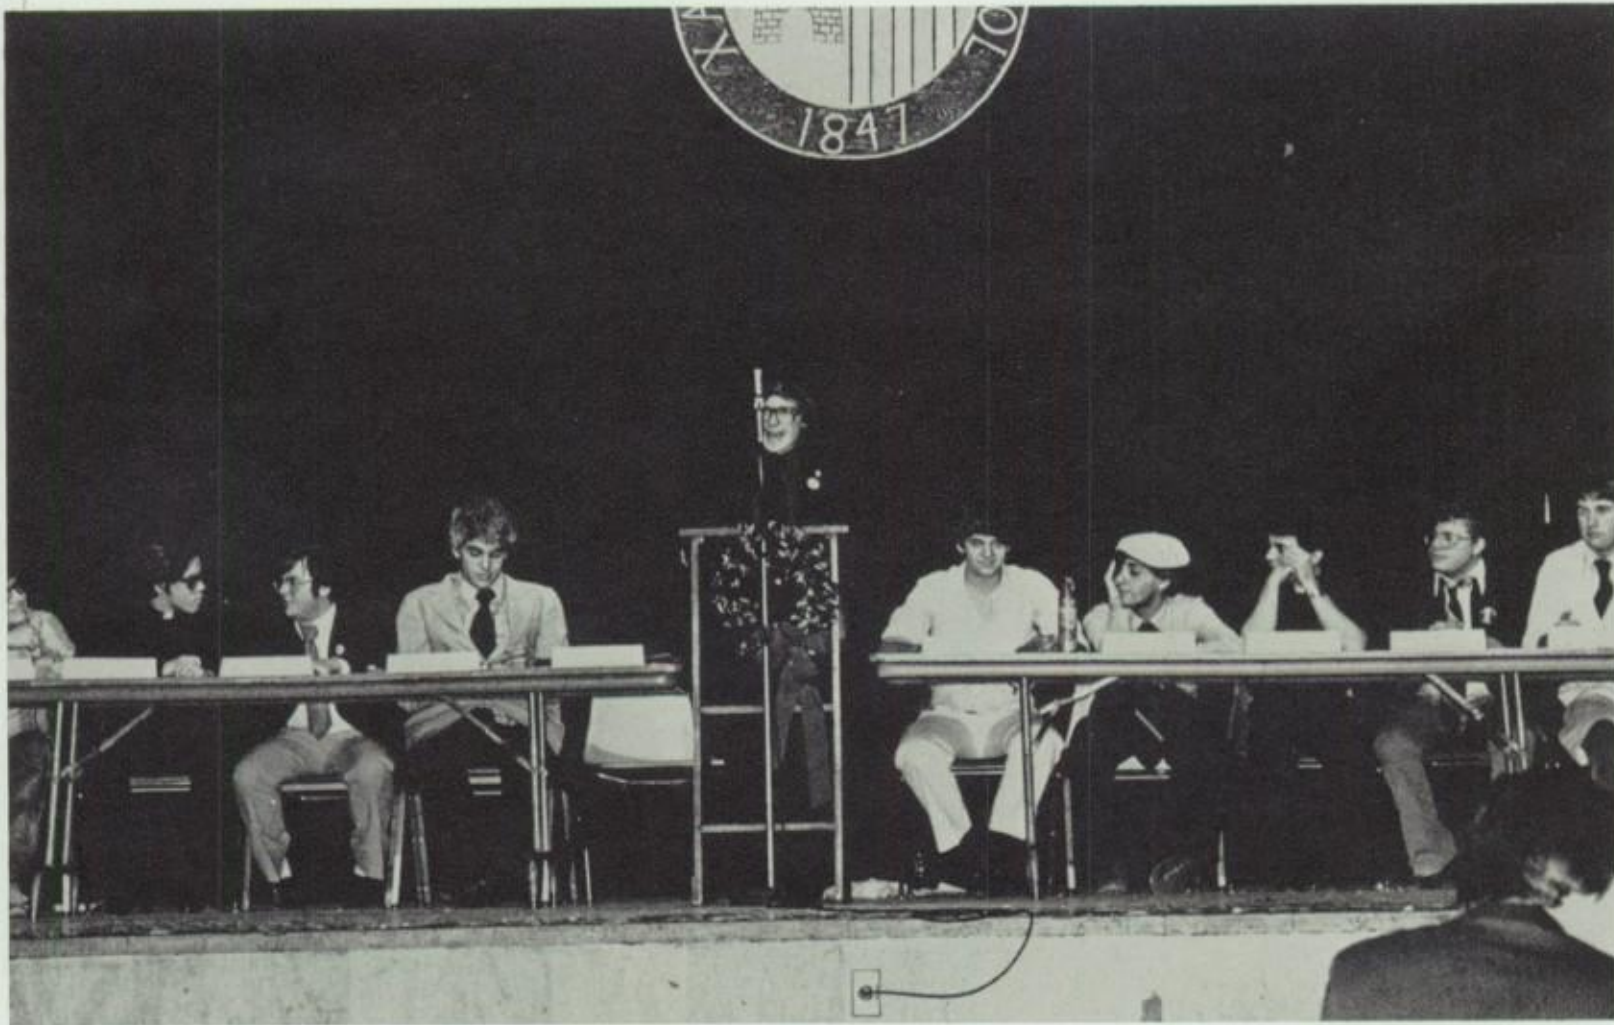

You should say you have arrived.

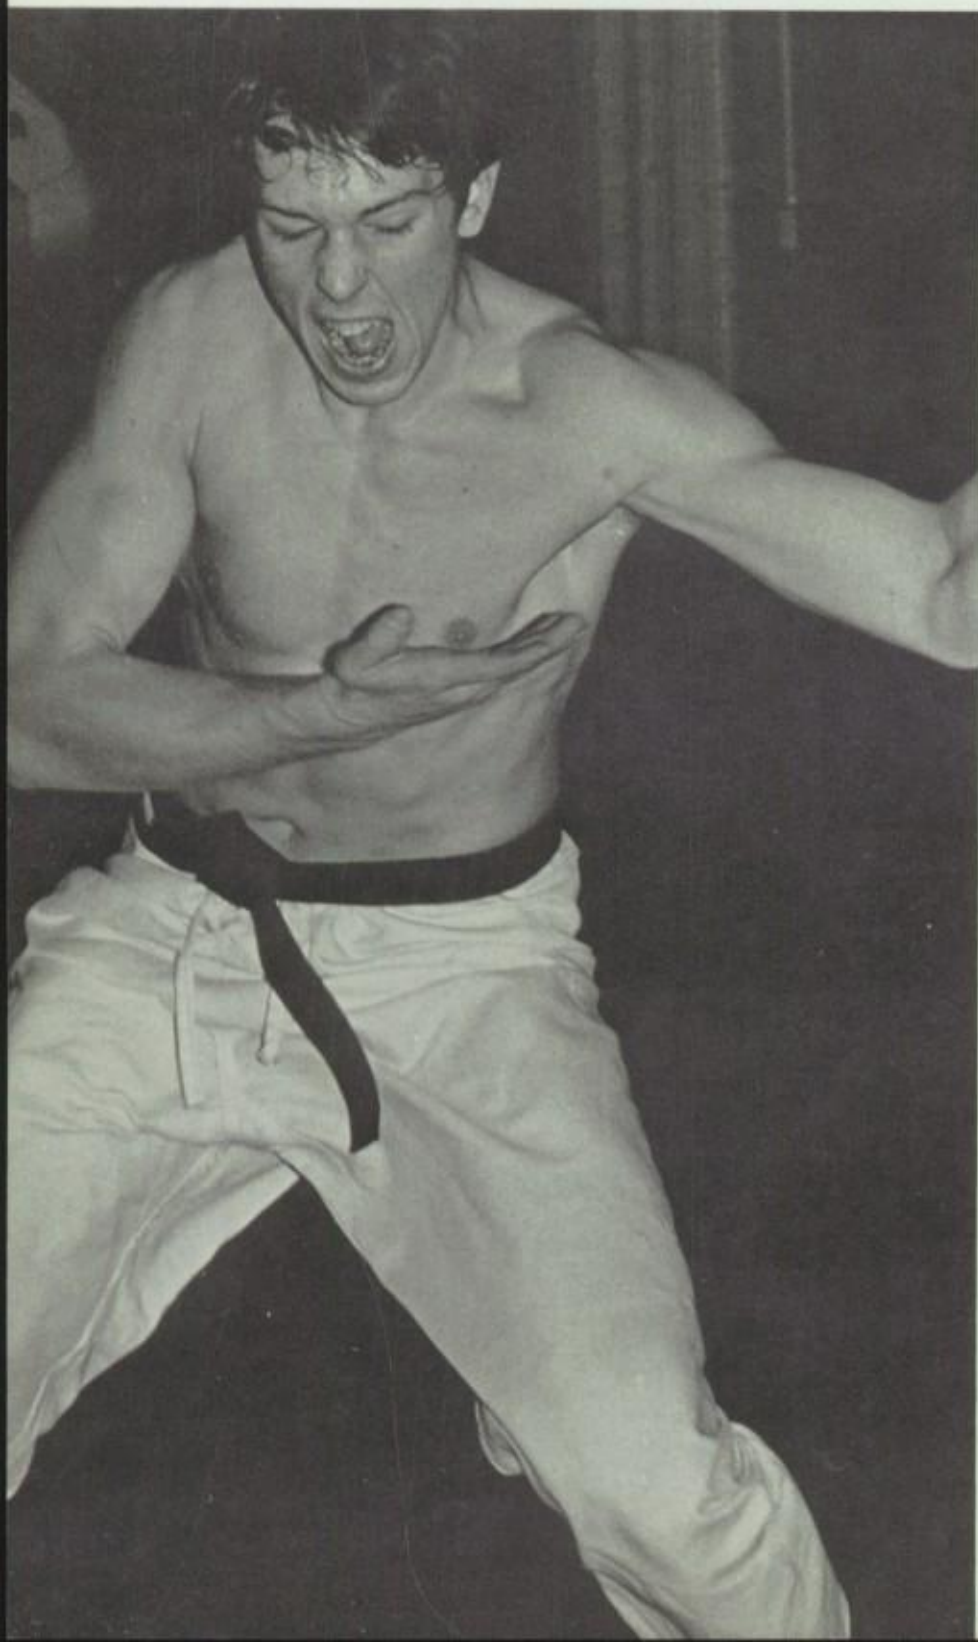

You say you are finished.

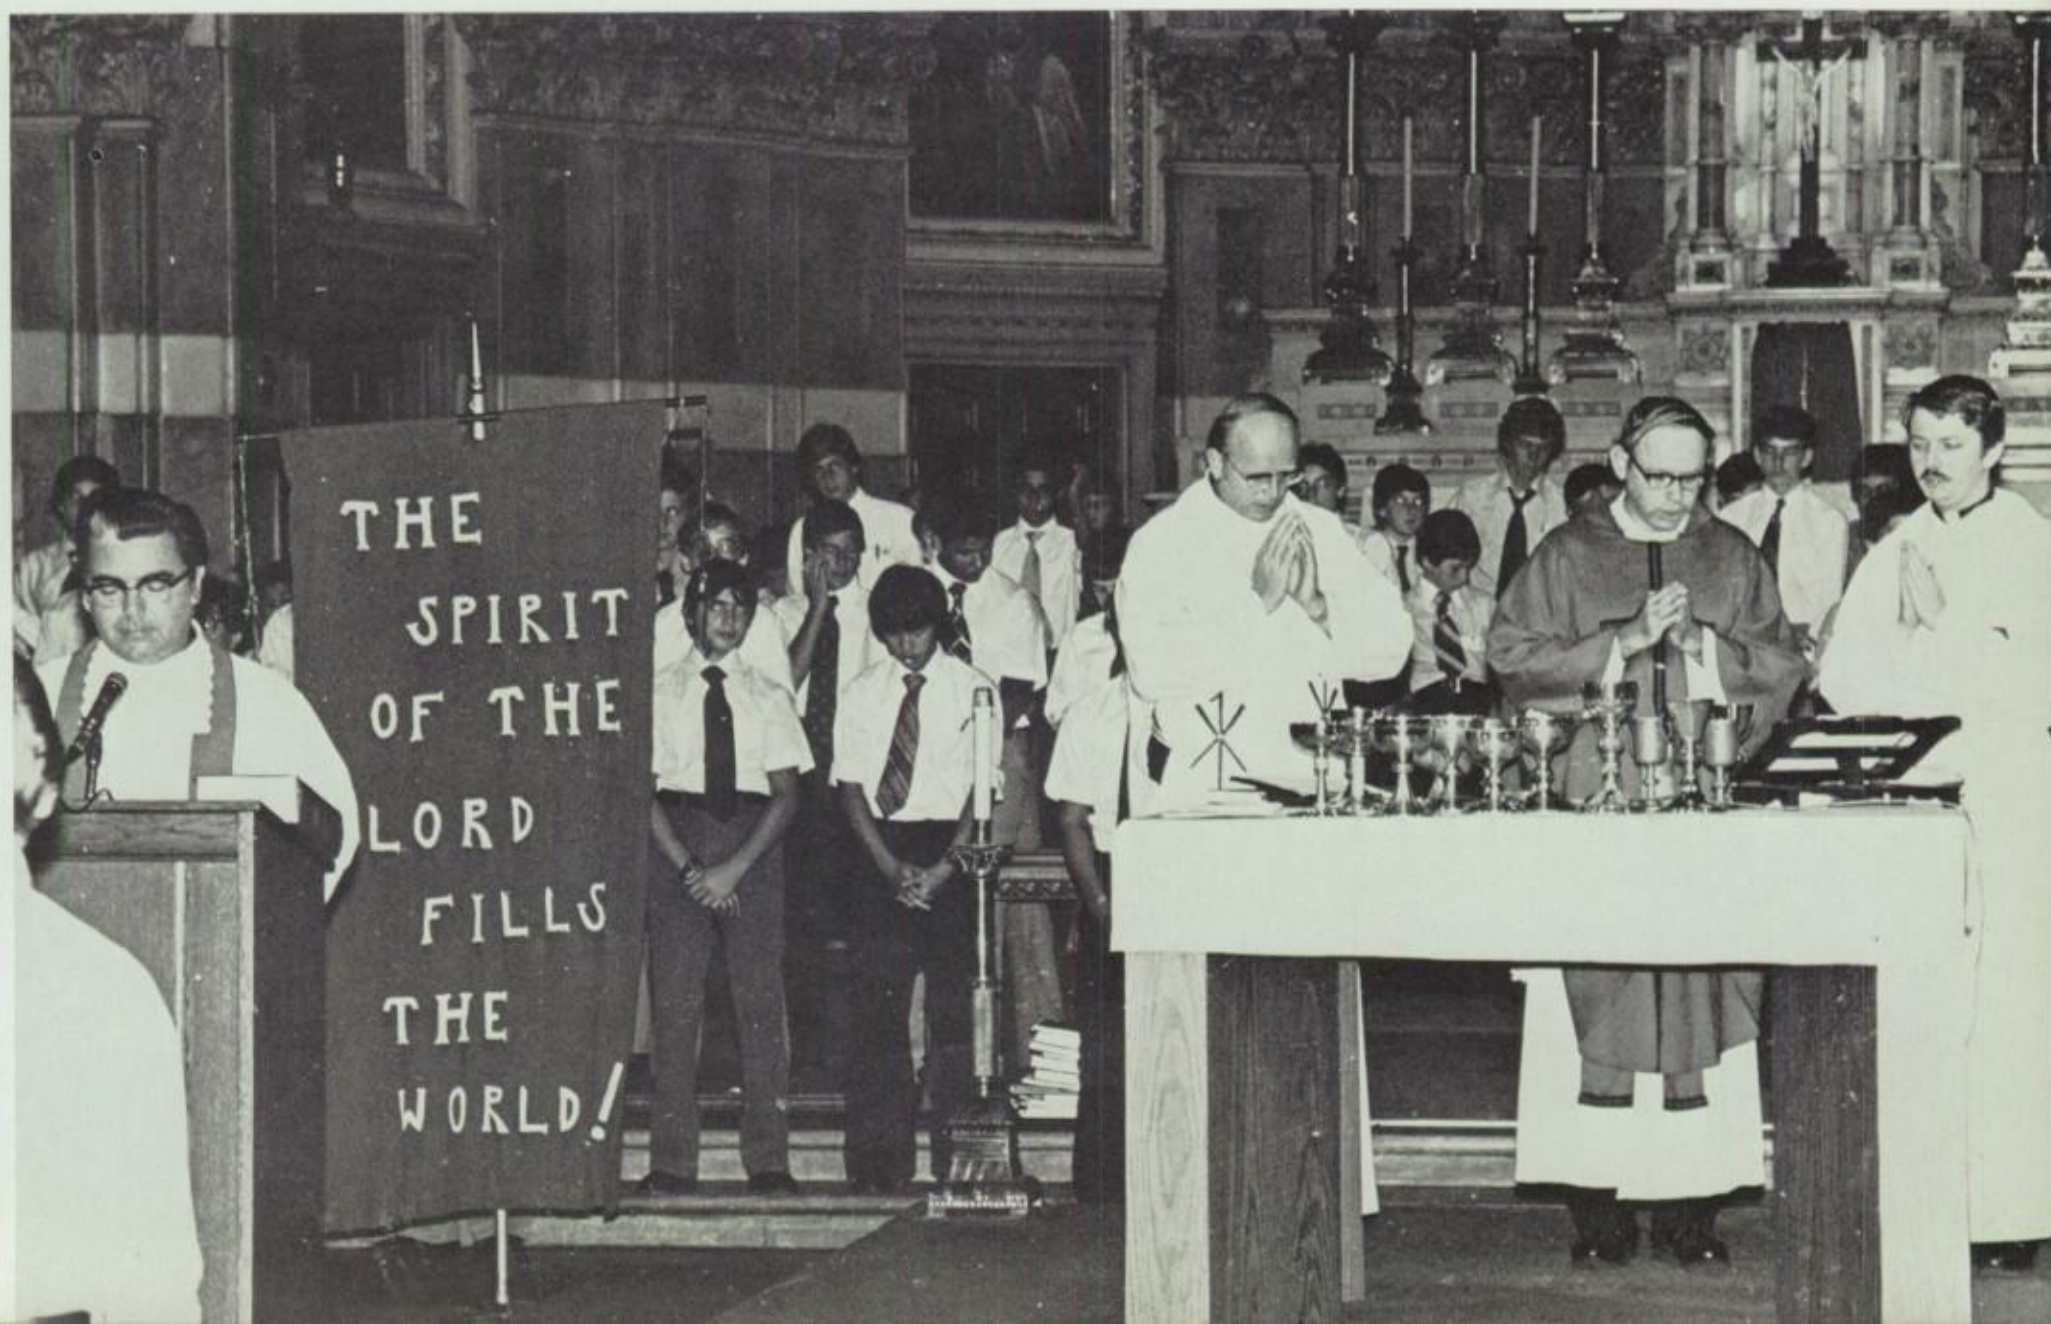

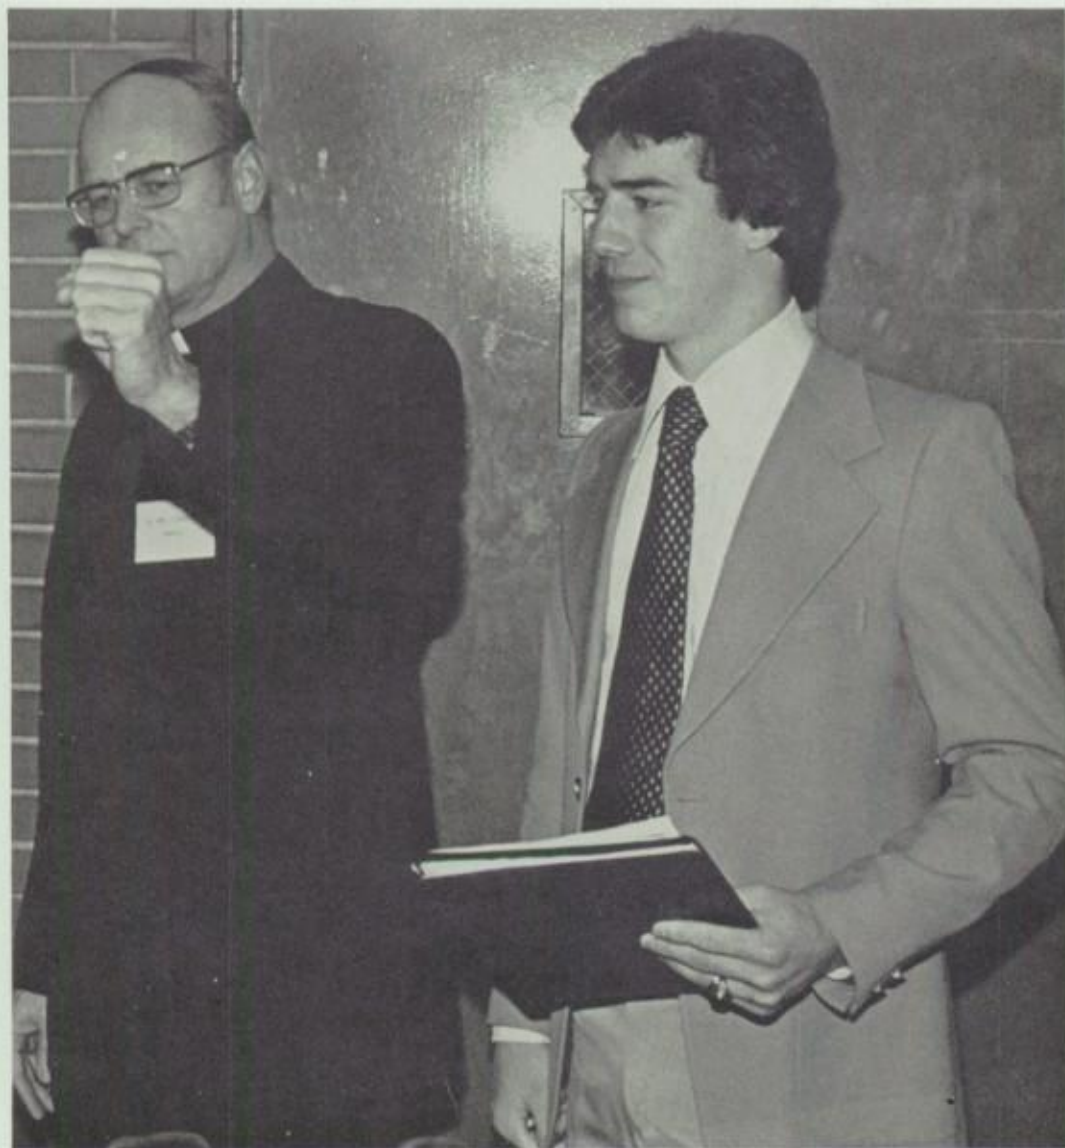

You should say you will begin.

"And when you have reached the mountain top . . .

... then you shall begin to climb."
